From January through March 2009, a jury trial was held to determine if Raymond Lee Oyler would be convicted of murder and sentenced to death. At its conclusion, a Riverside County jury convicted Oyler of five counts of murder and recommended he face the death penalty. The Honorable Judge W. Charles Morgan sentenced Oyler to death on June 5, 2009. During the trial, on or about Feb. 26, 2009 Hillman prepared and delivered flyers to all of the vehicles in the County of Riverside juror parking lots. The flyers were copies of newspaper articles describing various pre-trial rulings by Judge Morgan in the case of People v. Raymond Lee Oyler which prohibited the defense from introducing certain evidence. The flyers were discovered by three of the jurors in Oyler's trial during the noon recess and Riverside County sheriff's deputies located four more flyers on the windshields of other jurors in the case. The Riverside County District Attorney's Office began an investigation and identified Hillman as a suspect. During the execution of a search warrant at Hillman's residence, he fled and has not been located since. District Attorney Rod Pacheco has offered a $10,000 reward for information leading to his arrest and conviction. Anyone with information on his whereabouts is encouraged to contact Crime Stoppers at (760) 341-STOP.

Hillman surrendered to Corona Police hours after being named to the Most Wanted list.
