Victim Services Advocates

Victim Services Advocates in Riverside County work for the District Attorney's Office. Advocates help prosecution witnesses understand and exercise their rights.

Witness Rights:

As a witness to a crime, you are vital to the criminal justice process. Without you, the system cannot work. Witnesses to a crime have the following rights.

- You have the right to be treated with dignity and respect.
- No attorney may disclose your address or telephone number to the defendant, or anyone else, unless the court holds a hearing and finds good cause for the disclosure. (Penal Code §1054.2.)

- When anyone seeks to interview you in connection with a case, you are entitled to know the name and agency of persons seeking the interview and to see their identification. (Penal Code §1054.8.)
- You have the right to be notified as soon as feasible that a court proceeding to which you have been subpoenaed has been cancelled or rescheduled. (Penal Code §679.02(a)(1).)
- Upon request, you have the right to be notified of the final disposition of the case. (Penal Code §679.02(a)(2) and 11116.10.)
- If the case involves a violent felony, you have the right to be notified of a pending pretrial disposition prior to the entry of the plea. (Penal Code §679.02(a)(12).)
- If the case involves a violent felony, you may have the right to be notified of the release, escape, scheduled execution or death of the defendant. (Penal Code §679.02 (a) (11) and 679.03(b).)
- If the case involves a violent felony, you have the right to be notified of the community in which the defendant is scheduled to be released and the proposed date of release. (Penal Code §3058.8.)

- You have the right to receive services from the District Attorney's Division of Victim Services. (Penal Code §13835.5.)
- You have the right to review and copy the probation report within 60 days of the date of judgment or the date probation is granted. (Penal Code §1203.05.)
- You may be entitled to witness fees and mileage. (Penal Code §679.02(a)(7) and 1329(a).)
